The 113th Annual Conference is just around the corner. The conference is set for September 19th & 20th, 2014 at the Decatur Conference Center and Hotel, Decatur, IL. Room rates are $81.00 per night plus tax for either single or double. This year’s entertainment will be “Kidd Kaddilac and his group who plays 50’s, 60’s and 70’s music. (It should be a wild night of fun and dancing). The ladies will be touring the Millikin Homestead and doing lunch and shopping at the Mari-Mann Herb Farm. To make your room reservations call Lynn Durham at (217) 420-8718. Conference registration forms along with information on the ladies program are in this issue of the “Journal”. Hospitality rooms are $50.00 per night. (Only two rooms available) so reserve your room now. Tell your friends and let’s make this conference the best ever.

As everyone knows SB1 was passed reference to State Pensions. On May 14th, 2014 the Sangamon County Circuit Court granted a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction as requested by the “We Are One” coalition and its plaintiffs, halting the implementation of Senate Bill 1. (Public Act 98-5990) This law will NOT go into effect on June 1st, 2014 as scheduled. This states the legislation in its entirety so that the pension systems and other defendants are enjoined from implementing or administering any provisions of the act until the court issues a final ruling on the merits of the act’s constitutionality or until a determination is made on the law’s constitutionality, unless the court takes further action on the injunction prior to that time.

On May 23rd, 2014, an E-Mail was sent out from Executive Director Julie Clarke, of the Illinois Public Pension Advisory Committee in reference to the Donstate Pension deal of Police Officers and Firefighters, which I feel every one of our members should be aware of. (Permission was granted by Director Clarke to reprint this E-Mail. It reads:

“A key State lawmaker is verging on a deal aimed at stabilizing hundreds of troubled pension funds for police and firefighters across Illinois, though the plan would avoid the sort or money-saving retirement benefit cuts that many Mayors have been clamoring for, WBEZ has learned. After weeks of talks with police and fire pension fund representatives and municipal officials, State Senator Terry Line, D-Waukegan, zeroed in this week on several key changes to the more than 600 police and firefighter pension funds in the suburbs and downstate, according to sources with direct knowledge of his proposals. The changes would ease restrictions on how pension funds invest their money and even out the makeup of their governing boards but would not slash benefits, increase retirement ages or require cops and firefighters to contribute more towards their retirement, the sources say.

Those have always been topics that have been there for a long time. "Link told WBEZ that he thinks that we’re coming closer to resolving a little bit of differences that people have on it. So that’s probably what you’ll be seeing fairly soon."

Link also wants a five-year moratorium on changes to the pension law without both parties consent, according to the sources. That could anger Mayors and municipal groups who for years have been asking for more sweeping reforms to reduce their state-mandated pension contributions for police and firefighters outside of Chicago. Link said his suggested proposals were not final, but he did not say whether he’d introduce a bill before the General Assembly adjourns its spring session.

Altogether, the pension funds for police and firefighter outside of Chicago are projected to have just about half the money they’ll need to pay out to retirees and some are already teetering on insolvency. As of 2012, they had an aggregate of about $8.4 billion in unfunded liabilities. One proposal Link outlined during a closed-door meeting earlier, would grant pension funds wider latitude in how they can invest their money. Illinois pension law currently restricts how much money pension funds can pour into certain types of investment, such as stocks, with smaller pension funds facing tighter restrictions, while larger ones are free to take more risks. Critics say this has hamstrung police and fire funds that might otherwise have seen bigger investment returns. Another proposal would change the makeup of the hundreds of five member boards that govern police and fire pension funds outside of Chicago. Right now, two members are appointed by each municipality, with two elected from the ranks of working police and firefighters and one retiree. Municipal groups argue that leaves them in the minority during key pension fund votes. According to sources, Link wants to increase the boards to six members, three appointed by the municipality and three chosen by public safety workers, possibly with a seventh member chosen by the whole group.

A third idea would allow smaller pension funds to pool their assets and invest them together. This falls far short of the Mayors’ call to consolidate Illinois hundreds of discrete pension funds into a single entity, similar to the fund for municipal workers around the State. But backers say it would provide more stability for funds with less money to invest.

Link’s proposed moratorium on further pension changes could be a tough sell. It would mean police and firefighters wouldn’t be able to win the sort of benefit enhancements that Mayors have blamed for their public safety pension woes. But it also means Mayors and municipal groups wouldn’t be able to fight for more sweeping reforms, with bigger savings, in the near future.

A coalition of nearly 100 Mayors and Municipal interest groups is calling for a reduction in the annual retirement benefit increases downstate police and firefighters currently receive. They also want to raise the retirement age, force workers to contribute more money and consolidate Illinois more than 600 funds to save on administration costs.

Continued >>
Mayors around Illinois have seen their pension costs steadily rise, while in many cases, the health of the funds has continued to decline. They blame what they call “pension sweeteners”, that is, benefit increases approved by State lawmakers, for rising costs that are squeezing municipal budgets around the State.

Police and fire unions meanwhile, argue towns could have budgeted for the ballooning pension costs, thanks to a funding scheme approved by State lawmakers’ decades ago. And they only have to wait out the clock. Starting in 2015, the State can begin intercepting grant money from towns that don’t properly fund their pensions.

For his part, Link has suggested he will not impose the sort of scaled-back retirement benefits that lawmakers approved for employees of the State of Illinois and the city of Chicago. Unions argue those cuts violate a part of the State constitution that says benefits “shall not be diminished or impaired” and the State pension bill has prompted several legal challenges.

Link thinks it will do the purpose that we’re all looking for and that’s to give the stability in the system, plus to give an opportunity (for pension funds) to make a better investment and make more money on their return.” Link feels that this is something that everyone agrees on."

I hope that everyone contacts their legislators and tell them about what they are trying to do with our hard worked pensions.

If you have any questions about this information, feel free to contact Executive Director Julie Clarke of the IPPAC at, (847) 519-1648.

If you need information on other bills, go to www.ilga.gov.

The sale of the Sherwood Youth has been put on hold. A Summons and complaint has been filed in the Richard J. Daley Center, against the Sherwood Youth Camp/Illinois Police Association by the prospective buyer, CZ Driving Horses. The complaint seeks reformation and specific performance based on Sherwood’s misrepresentations and breach of contract. Attorney James Skinner, of Galesburg, has been retained to represent the Sherwood Youth Camp along with IPA Attorney Edward Pacilli. When more information becomes available, our members will be informed.

In closing, I hope to see everyone at this year’s conference and I hope that everyone continues to sign up new members to this great Association. Until next time, Be Safe and God Bless.

Sincerely:
Edward W. Hoes

IPA 2014 Scholarship Award Program

ILLINOIS POLICE ASSOCIATION, INC.
2014 Scholarship Award Page 1

By Michael Jackson
Chairman Scholarship Committee

In 1994 the IPA Board decided to implement the annual scholarship award program. There were two dominant reasons for this decision:
1. To offer a recruitment incentive to prospective new members of the Illinois Police Association.
2. To reward our current members for their continued commitment and support for the organization.

On January 16, 2004, the Scholarship Committee held a meeting and reviewed the guidelines of the program. These guidelines were approved by the IPA Executive Board on April 6, 2004 to administer the program in a more efficient and effective manner for the benefit of our membership.

This information is being published to educate applicants and as a guideline for division officers during their review and processing of all required documentation.

All division chairmen will receive a copy of these guidelines and are expected to follow them to that their applicants receive proper consideration for the award. Any and all questions regarding eligibility should be directed to the corresponding division chairman. The scholarship committee of the Illinois Police Association will ultimately review all submitted applications for compliance and has the final decision regarding the awarding of scholarship funds.

The scholarship committee has worked hard to ensure the success of this ongoing program and asks that the following rules are strictly followed. Thank you for your consideration.

Eligibility:
1. A child (natural or legally adopted), regardless of residency, of an Active or Active Paid Up life member or a stepchild who resides in the same household of the IPA member. The applicant must be under the age of 24 as of November 1 of the corresponding scholarship year.

2. The member must be in good standing with the IPA for least one year prior to the date of application.

3. The scholarship applicant must be a full time student carrying a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester or an equivalent number of hours per quarter in an undergraduate capacity.

4. Full time nursing students who meet the above criteria are eligible to apply.

Persons who are not eligible:
1. IPA members or spouses.

2. Students in a trade, industrial or graduate school.

3. Part time students carrying less than 12 credit hours per semester or an equivalent number of hours per quarter.

ILLINOIS POLICE ASSOCIATION, INC.

2014 Scholarship Award Program

Eligibility will be predicated upon each division's roster of Active or Active Paid Up life members as of May 1 of the current year. No transfer of members to a different division will be made within 12 months prior to the deadline for application submissions (November 1 of each year) for the purpose of benefiting in the scholarship award program. Applicants may apply to only one division.

Scholarship Expenditures:
1. The current award will be $500.00 per school year per student. Each eligible student in a family may apply.

2. Award winners may reapply annually.

3. The Illinois Police Association, Inc. will remit one lump sum payment of $500.00 to award winner. The payment will be made after the division chairman submits the winning application with all necessary supplementary documentation to the IPA office. All winning applications will then be reviewed and ultimately approved by the scholarship committee.

4. Each of the 13 divisions of the IPA will receive one scholarship annually (if so submitted) at a cost to the association of $6,500.00

Procedure for Selection:
All applications will be collected and screened by each division for eligibility and the submission of all necessary documentation. After proper verification the division board will prepare the names of all candidates for a random drawing. The winner will be drawn by the chairman at a regular meeting of the division no later than the 30th day of November in the corresponding year. The chairman will also draw the name of the one alternate winner who will not be announced.

Should the announced winner be ineligible for any reason then the alternate be awarded the scholarship and announced at a later date. Divisions should retain all submitted applications in event that the alternate is also found ineligible and yet another winner may have to be selected.

The winning application with all supportive documentation will be forwarded to the IPA office by the division secretary no later than December 15. Pending the receipt of all documentation in a timely manner, announcements of the official winners will be made by the chairman of the scholarship committee at the earliest scheduled board meeting.

If any division fails to submit the name an eligible winner no scholarship will be awarded to said division. Winners of the scholarships will be eligible to reapply the following year.

Verification of Eligibility:
The following must accompany all applications:
1. A copy of the applicant's current class schedule.
2. A copy of an invoice or statement from the bursar's office indicating full or partial tuition payment.
3. A copy or printout of a financial instrument electronic or other document showing full or partial tuition payment.

Important deadlines to remember:
*November 1 - Application due to division chairman
*November Division meeting - Random drawing
*December 15 - Winning application due at IPA office
